No other town of any size in Missouri can beat our three jewelry stores for Holiday, Birthday or wedding gems, jewelry and job lots. From sparkling diamonds that reflect in bright beams the love-light of the sweet hearts soul, to the diminutive locket clasped over and concealing a bulk of affection that when loosened will encompass a world, or a tiny shirt waist pin that bars admiration and limits its bounds to the filmy covering of fanciful lingerie or fairest form—why all this and more, they can supply. Call on them, husband, mother, sweet heart and brother, and select your gifts for friends and loved ones.

One of the Benefits

He had a crepe band on his arm and the old man on the rear platform with him was curious about it and finally queried:

"For the wife?"

"No."

"Child?"

"No."

"Sister, eh?"

"No—brother."

"So you've lost a brother, eh?"

"Yes, poor Tom has polled his last vote."

"Did he live here in Oshkosh?"

"Yes, right here."

"Too bad. He ought to have lived and died in St. Louis."

"For what reason, sir?"

"Why, they'd keep on letting him vote for 20 years after he died. Very liberal city, sir—very liberal!"

Announcement

A. V. Simmons, the late manager at Edgar Wilks' Fix It Tailor shop, thanks the general public for the kind support and keeping him so busy here, designing and making up good clothes only.

He begs to announce that he expects to open a new merchant tailor place in February instead of January, with reliable partner and Tailor to help him, and equally suitable for ladies or gentlemen's work.

Wishing all a happy Christmas and prosperous New Year.

46-2t. A. V. SIMMONS

Doing Her Part

"Wife will you thread my needle for me? I want to sew on a few buttons."

"Why, certainly. There you are. Now you can sew on your buttons while I go to the bridge club. Sometimes I wonder how you managed before you were married."

"Chicken" White, the Jack Powell of the crack ball team here, is at home for the holidays.

Twenty Great Women

Andrew Carnegie having us the names of the 20 great men in the world, the Illinois suffragists offer a list of 20 greatest women. These are:

Carrie Chapman Catt, Baker Eddy, Francis E. W. Harriet Beecher Stowe, Addams, Ella Flagg Young, Emmeline Pankhurst, Florence Nightingale, Clara Barton, Abeth B. Browning, Charlotte Bronte, Margaret Fuller, Bernhardt, Mrs. Raymond, Anna Howard Shaw, Mme. Curie.

Inasmuch as six of Mr. negie's truly great were the Illinois women are not ridiculed for choosing a majority of theirs from America.

It is in America and Europe in fact that 18 of the 20 women are found. Inasmuch as English-speaking women to be so predominant should have been room to Queen Victoria.

Out of 16 counties in which four years ago 12 have joined the "w" union this year. Miss county went dry by 1911 ago. Last Saturday it wet by 3656. Wet counting on the proposition creased the majority prohibition.

The Natural Method

"Do you believe in the educational methods?"
"Why not? Isn't the the rod the natural way to children smart?"

Kirtly Venable of St came up last week to en holidays at home.
